

Demand / Materials Manager

Be part of start-up of a new Business Unit in North / Central Jersey

Report directly to the VP of Operations

Below is a quick cut at some of the job requirements...

- Use Sales Forecasts, and historical selling patterns to develop stocking and replenishment plans for all Finished Goods, Accessories and Spares components for US and US export business.
- Responsible for maintaining appropriate stocking levels of all Finished Goods, Accessories and Spares to support "Ship from Stock" capability for end customer deliveries within assigned markets.
- Key Member of Company Sales and Operations Planning Process.
- Central point of contact for customer service queries relative to delivery updates and confirmations
- Manage overall supply change for products built in internal manufacturing centers and 3rd party sources for US and US Export market
- Track and report on OTD and Book to Fulfill metrics for all US trade revenue
- Manage and maintain SAP Item Master accuracy.
- Work with 3000+ sku's and safety stock
- Buying consumer product finished goods for resale
- Work with Master Scheduler & Logistics Manager
- Work with 2 European factories – support US and Asia markets
- High level of proficiency in SAP Supply Chain Management and Sales and Distribution modules required.
- 4 year business degree (or equiv) required, MBA preferred.
- Certification in Production and Inventory Management (APICS, CPM) or equivalent preferred.

Contact:

Gary Pezzuti,
Summit Group
973 875-3300